

Bearing False Witness

...in our tabernacles. It is true that when our Elders have been abroad preaching they have not met with similar courtesy. There was not long since, in the Vermont Journal,...

The Preaching and Practice of the Gospel—Visitations of Angels, Etc.

Discourse by Elder H. W. Naisbitt, Continued from Page 376, Journal of Discourses, Vol. XXII, delivered in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, Sunday Afternoon, May 15th, 1881. (CONTINUED FROM PAGE...

Elder John Taylor's Mission to Europe in 1849-1852

...society of fanatics and fools, &c.; but let this be as it may, their position in the world, in a national capacity, demands at our hands, as public journalists, to...

Reminiscences of the Jackson County Mob, the Evacuation of Nauvoo, and the Settlement of Great Salt Lake City

...the Pioneers first arrived in this region to inhabit these valleys. Should we refer to the pages of the history that is no doubt written in many a private journal,...

Science of Grammar, Etc.

...proper journal of the events of their time, to speak or write correctly, or to manage and conduct a periodical for the diffusion of that knowledge which it has pleased...

Synopsis of Remarks

...the only newspaper printed west of Booneville, Mo., excepting the Elder's Journal, published for a short time in Far West. We were the Pioneer settlers of Western Iowa, making the...

Experience in Missionary Labors—Ancient Prophecies Concerning the People of God in the Last Days

...well assured that our Father, who reigns in yonder heavens, keeps a journal, or, in other words, a record—a great record in which He records the doings of the children...

The Saints Are a Strange People Because They Practice What They Profess

...how could it be expected to operate satisfactorily if a hook here or a journal yonder were to say, I am not going to stay here, or I am going...

The Blessings Enjoyed Through Possessing the Ancient Records, Etc.

...resemblance to that of Paul and his fellow Apostles. Brother Woodruff has published a little work, called, "Leaves from my Journal," and in reading that book I have been very...

The Church Governed By Law, Etc.

...that, and no people have a right to coerce us into that condition, notwithstanding that there is a journal published in this city—and we have preserved the record of it,...